Near-contemporary black quarter calf, marbled paper boards, spines ruled in blind. II .
Very fragile. Nonetheless, when the book was published in Hamburg on September 1844, the book's shoulders are splitting. Second Volume is Third Edition. Would be fine but for scattered marginalia.
Unfortunately Engels did not see the work completed; he died in the year before the very first foreign translation of the work was that into Russian, which, considering Russian censorship at the time, would seem a very unlikely event.
