Theseonlinebookshopstoldustheyhavethisitem:.The lack of a single poetic voice, and the mix of high and low styles throughout the work underlines the absence of a single, teleological presence in the work, perhaps signalling the absence of one unifying God-like presence in a post-war, post-religious world that has been torn apart by the Great War. The attempt to situate modernism in its originating or characterizing moment is, moreover, relatively new, although a number of valuable studies on the literature of the war Modernism.
