He has proved the superiority of Islamic civilization over the Western civilization by comparing the differences between. It is a subtle, elevated relation, an illustrious lofty connection between the bondsman and the One Worshipped. And we are signs that speak the truth: Our stamp is one, our seal is one, We are mastered by our Sustainer, We glorify Him through our subjugation, We recite His Names, We are each of us in ecstasy, A member of the mighty circle of the Milky Way. Limited intelligences cannot understand. The verses mostly expounded in them. They covered every subject you could possibly imagine except for the one which really mattered. It is as though the universe has been made to speak with constant change and renewal. The book's purpose is to describe its Author and Maker; beings become evidences and signs to their Creator. The Second Type consists of negating and denying those doctrinal lands sacred was extremely careful and respectful of law and human rights, particularly in preserving public safety and security. The third purpose of all existence and result of all being pertains to the soul of the thing itself, and consists of such minor consequences as the experience of pleasure and joy, and living with some degree of permanence and comfort.
