William Leisner, et al. Interlinked novels set after the episode " Endgame ".

This was an interesting and well-written continuation of the ongoing story.

The book did move along at a good pace, but the climax felt rushed, and there was no real resolution to speak of. I like the way Archer is written in these books and he works better as a diplomat than he arguably ever was as a starship captain. Using the "Silent Enemy" aliens was great as . You left some subtle and not-so-subtle cliffhangersto answer for! I enjoy filling in the unexplored segments of the Star Trek universe.
