Although I guessed right at who the stalker was, I was still shocked at what the Stalker did to keep Nic. When Vivian and her husband David came along they made his wildest dream come true, to be an actor. It has a great story line, and characters that you will think about way after you've read the book. This story was so different from the one she'd thought she loved. She has dreams of becoming a professional free-lance photographer one day and her big chance occurs when she wins a contest Today she lives in the Pacific Northwest, thriving on the mix of cultures, languages, religions and ideologies. Dark and edgy with the bite of red hot passion sizzling through the pages, Deadly Obsession is a romantic suspense that delivers on all counts.
