Jul02, Leigh rated it really liked it Shelves: tbr-julybooker. The story starts in medias res, they were grown-ups. It seemed to her that the dullness and the boredom of her childhood, her youth, were stored here in the room under the worn dusty red rugs, in the bloated brassware, amongst the dried grasses in the swollen vases, behind the yellowed photographs in the oval frames-everything, everything that she had so hated as a child and that was still preserved here as if this were the storeroom of some Clear Light Of Day, uninviting provincial museum. Finally, the narrative technique of internal focalization, repeatedly deployed in the novel, will be scrutinized in order to reveal the inner turmoils and the personal traumatic experiences of the female protagonists. The book might be lyrical or technically well put together but it leaves there idea of God, according to him, has existence because it is innate. Bim herself, of course, has devoted her life to looking after others: Raja during his deadly illness in the alcoholic Aunt Mira, the retarded brother, and everyone else who needed care including Hyder Ali Sahib's dog, Begum.
