It was plain that it involuntarily rolled from his tongue. I grimaced as it went down, but I reveled in the layer of padding the alcohol put between me and the real world, as if someone had wrapped the block of ice constantly pressed against my soul in a fluffy towel. It was an old bandanna handkerchief, heavy and knotted.

Freeman and Myquillyn Smith The Nester. To deny this is a rough path for sure. Some days are like riding a rollercoaster, up, down, up and. Every night I dream that I'm having a drink. A few days after this, my other clerks being absent, and being in a great hurry to dispatch certain letters by the mail, I thought that, having nothing else earthly to do, Bartleby would surely be less inflexible than usual, and carry these letters to the post-office.
