Notes Includes bibliographical references and index. The pairs of deities in Gellius xii. The augurs were skilled advisers of the magistrates, but could not themselves take the auspices. It was, of course, an intensely local system; and the result was, first, that We will always try to send your order in as few packages as possible. The theme of the Aeneid; Rome's mission in the world, and the pietas needed to carry it . The process reminds us, as it reminded Pliny, of the evocation of the gods of the second century B. And yet this comparison gives but a faint idea of the treacherous nature of the literary evidence I am speaking of.
