I was raised a Baptist... How much of our spirituality is our own choice; how much has been ingrained into us?

It is a recompense system matching the nature of the crime, that is how accurate

In an exponential process, on the other hand, the rate of growth is very small in the beginning but gradually increases until a sort of saturation point is reached. However, our future growth and development will depend on whatever attitudes and viewpoints we personally maintain.

I was a little girl when I became aware of God as a personal being who loved and ca
