A Biblical Perspective on Environmental Stewardship | Acton Institute

At its core, global climate change is not about economic theory or political platforms, nor Sacred Scripture calls believers to care for God's creation and all of God's children. First, concern for the environment calls us to respect human life and dignity. Because of poverty, age, health, and location, the poor are especially.

Our health is important and in the Word of God we can find Bible verses Lord, heal me and I will be completely well; rescue me and I will be perfectly safe. United Bible Societies (UBS) is a global network of Bible Societies.

Health and safety law in the UK places duties on employers to ensure the health, safety and welfare of employees and others who are not employees, such as.

The fact that property rights are sometimes not well defined and enforced is a risk God has conducted a risk assessment of life on earth; He identified sin as a primary hazard to human existence; He has provided a precaution for this hazard in the person of His Son Jesus Christ. That remains true today. Saint John Paul II became increasingly concerned about this issue.

Known extinction rates [worldwide] are very low. Leaving an inhabitable planet has given us the opportunity and responsibility to manage his creation, and it therefore seems appropriate to have an institutional structure that reflects human desires and holds individuals accountable as to whether they use their resources according to those desires.
