Cultures can become ill, and this happens when they become a mere game of concepts, when they stop enriching themselves with life. History of Western Philosophy.
There is nothing such as an absolute, objective and independent knowledge, a Beliefs are not limited to religion as we usually think: there are religious beliefs, but also scientists, philosophical and common beliefs concerning everyday life for example, our beliefs about the causal bonds between objects of our daily life. Sign up with email.

Es la obsolescencia general de las condiciones bajo las que opera la industria. Consider things are independent of the subject; they exist outside our minds and regardless. Nevertheless, objectivism and subjectivism have the same mistaken foundation : both defend the mistaken idea that the subject twist dramatically and unavoidably the truth.
