When the true fire and spiritual water join into one, water and fire balance each other, true feeling and spiritual essence combine, and real knowledge and conscious knowledge cleave to one another; then sense is itself essence, and essence is itself sense. The whole process is accomplished by this generative energy, with nothing else mixed in.

The content of the Lieh-tzu, in contrast, range from cosmology and metaphysics. Those who have taken to auxiliary methods, with all their intricacies, have been confused by the word reversal and have come to do all sorts of practises in the physical sphere. Because its energy is associated with the east, it is also called the blue dragon.
